

PRESBYTERY REPRESENTATIVE TO CONFERENCE EXECUTIVE

Mandate:

- a) serve as a member of the London Conference Executive and engage fully in its responsibilities and decision-making
- b) link both the work of the Conference through its Executive and the work of the Presbytery and its Executive

Skills and Gifts:

- a) communication skills
- b) informed as to the strengths, challenges, and experience of the Presbytery
- c) understanding of the role of the Conference Executive
- d) time to prepare for and participate in meetings connected both to Conference and Presbytery

Expectations and Terms:

- a) attend the meetings of the Conference Executive (customarily in September, November, February, April and June)
- b) participate in the meetings of the Sub-Executive (as needed-customarily the last Wednesday of the month)
- c) keep the Conference Executive apprised of the life and work of the Presbytery through verbal and/or written reports
- d) keep the Presbytery Executive apprised of the life and work of the Conference through its Executive through verbal and/or written reports
- e) be responsible for the Conference report to the Presbytery meeting
- f) serve as the representative of Conference to bring greetings if asked

The term for this position is three years. The Presbytery representatives' terms conclude at different times to provide for both continuity and change among their representatives.

Reviewed: June 2014