PART D: ABOUT OUR COMMUNITY

1. This is what we love about our community. This is what makes it unique.

The immediate neighbourhood around our church is an established bedroom community. Many people who were raised in "Olde Riverside" either remain or return to the area. Within a one kilometer radius of the church, there are all amenities including waterfront parks, library, outdoor public pool, baseball diamonds, elementary schools, grocery store, drug store, dry cleaner, banks, corner stores, and several small retail shops and restaurants.

2. The three economic, demographic or political challenges facing our area are:

In the last economic up-swing, many long-standing residents in the Olde Riverside area moved further toward out-lying communities with new sub-divisions built in LaSalle and Tecumseh (and further) creating turn-over in the adjacent neighbourhoods, comprised of mainly of modest single-family homes.

Since 2006, the area has struggled economically with job losses in [automotive] manufacturing and some stagnation in other industries. The anticipated building of a new international border crossing bodes well for job creation in this area.

Politically, the area has most often voted for parties that are left-leaning and through the last decade, were not well endowed by the former Conservative government when, for example, many federal departments were consolidated and further job erosion occurred locally. Unfortunately, Windsor and Essex County is often geographically disadvantaged as political parties tend not to visit or invest in this most southern region located even south of parts of Michigan.

3. Here are two or three websites that offer detailed information about our community:

<https://www.countyofessex.on.ca/en/index.asp>

<https://www.wechu.org/>

<http://visitwindsor.essex.com/>

4. Other faith communities represented in our community/region are: Within a 15 kilometer radius there are also Roman Catholic, Pentecostal, Anglican, Baptist, Jewish, and Muslim. We share our building on Sundays with an independent Presbyterian congregation.

5. We have close ties with the following faith communities: We have participated in an annual event with the other United churches in Windsor.
